

The background consists of several vertical panels, each featuring a different Sanrio character. From left to right, the characters are: a blue character (likely My Melody), a yellow character (likely Pompompurin), a pink character (likely Hello Kitty), and a green character (likely Pochacco). Each character is depicted in a cute, stylized manner, often with large eyes and a friendly expression. The panels are arranged in a row, creating a colorful and playful backdrop for the text.
